

June War Room: Housing Whiplash

While the $1T crypto market saturates headlines, the $43T U.S. housing market is what determines whether we are recession bound or not. Mortgage rates have doubled since March, and our biggest economic driver is eroding fast

- Have U.S. housing prices peaked?
- Does the Fed want to end the housing boom?
- When do mortgage rates overwhelm millennial demand?

Join us as we update our U.S. Housing scenario and welcome thought leader Gargi Chaudhuri, Head of iShares Investment Strategy Americas – in the next Orion War Room.
